BIBLIOGRAPHY

PRIMARY SOURCES

2. Aitihasic Lekhasangrah, Poona, 1922, edited by Khare V.V.

3. Gaekwad Yanchya Itihaski Sadhne, edited and published by State Records Department, Baroda.

4. Gaekwads of Baroda (English Documents), Vol. I to IX, Bombay 1938, completed and edited by Gense G.H. and Banaji, D.R. (The documents deal with the Gaekwads, English and Peshwa. They do not make up a detailed connected historical narration but are mostly unrelated and disjointed sources of information about isolated events. Their importance is because it deals with the relations between the Gaekwads, English and Peshwa.

compiled and edited by Desai, D.H. and Clark, A.B.

7. Historical Selections from Baroda State Records,
   Vol.I, II, III and IV. Published by the State Records Department, Baroda, 1936 (These volumes contain the old records of the Gaekwads in the forms of letters, Sanads and despatches).

8. Huzur Daftarkhana, Baroda, Original letter in Modi script in State Records Department, Baroda.
   File No.4, Dafter No.42, Papers dealing with the partition of Gujarat between Peshwa and Gaekwad in 1752-53.
   File No.8, Dafter No.42 Notes on Gaekwad from 1705 - 1731
   File No. 15, Dafter No.42, Treaty between the English and the Gaekwad, 1780.

11. Marathi Riyasat, Madhya Vibhag and Oottar Vibhag.
   Bombay, 1920 and 1925, edited by Sardesai G.S.

13. Selections from the Peshwa Daifter (New series)
   Vol. I & II Bombay 1957, edited by Joshi P.M. (Papers in the first volume deal with the main events of the Maratha history. Much light is also thrown on other unimportant yet, little known episodes and personalities. In the III volume, Maratha activities in Gujarat and on west coast are described).

Vol. II, The league of Babhai

Vol. IV, Ramraja's struggle for power

Vol. XII, Dabhade and the conquest in Gujarat.

Vol. XIX, Peshwa Madhavrao cross purposes with uncle Raghunathrao.

Vol. XXII. Extracts from the Peshwa's Diaries.

Vol. XXIV. Peshwa's commitments on the West Coast.

(The selections contain news letters, private letters, and official despatches. The selections are most authentic contemporary sources on Maratha history. They are classified in forty-five volumes subjectwise).

17. Shahu Dafter (Rumal)

18. The Bombay Gazetteer history of Gujarat by Bains J.A.

Fort William.
20. Poona Residency Correspondence, Vol.XII.

21. Dabhade Senapati Yanchi Hakikat quoted by Rajwade in his selection from Satara Dafter.

SECONDARY SOURCES

2. Ghavda, V.K. - Bibliography of Gujarat, 1600 to 1865.
4. Desai, C.M.: Vadodara Rajyano Itihas, Published by M.C. Kothari, Baroda, 1926.
15. Mostyn's Diary.
17. Philips, G.J. : The East India Company, 1784-1834, Oxford University Press.
25. Sarkar Jadunath - Foreward to the selections from the Peshwa Dafter, Bombay, 1933.
27. Shrivastav, V.S.: Latche Marathi Aitihasik Lekh from 1670 to 1818.
30. Shrivastav V.S. : Advent of Marathas in Bundel Khand from 1729 to 1792.
33. Lt.Col.R.Wallace : The Gaekwad and his relations with the British Government.
34. Marshamn : History of India, Vol.II.