Table above shows the time line of the study (Ph.D Work) carried out from the time of Registration to the course until submission of the dissertation to the University. Each block along the ‘X’ axis shows a block of six months. Discussions with guides/peers have been carried out as and when needed throughout the period.