<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No. of Tables</th>
<th>List of Tables</th>
<th>Page No.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Modification of Income limits of Kuppuswamy's scale (1962) ...</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Mean and Standard Deviation of SES scores</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.1</td>
<td>Table showing the growth of primary schools and enrolment of students (Government and private) in the state, since statehood</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2</td>
<td>Table showing lists of school (district and category-wise)</td>
<td>68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Table showing the outlay and expenditure on general education under the fifth year-plan in Nagaland</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4</td>
<td>Table showing the educational facilities made available to the people from the third plan to eighth plan</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5</td>
<td>Table showing sectoral outlay for elementary education</td>
<td>82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>Establishment of pre-primary schools in Dimapur</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Table showing different types of management of pre-primary school in Dimapur</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Table showing the goals of pre-primary education as stated by the Head Master</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Analysis of the Data on school structure of pre-primary school in Dimapur</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>Enrolment data of the pre-primary schools and number of teachers in the study</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.6</td>
<td>Detail qualifications of the Heads of pre-primary schools</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.7</td>
<td>Table showing various modes of parent-teacher contacts</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.8</td>
<td>Table showing the data on working days/hours, number of periods, duration of periods and arrival time of teachers and students</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.9</td>
<td>Table showing details regarding school assembly, food/refreshment, medical checkup and observation of important days by the schools</td>
<td>102</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
5.10  Table showing the subjects of study and learning materials used in the pre-primary schools in Dimapur.............................. 104.
5.11  Table showing analysis of recreational activities and physical Education in pre-primary schools in Dimapur............... 105
5.12  Table showing the method of teaching and provision of Instructional aids and materials in schools ..................... 106
5.13  Table showing the analysis of infra-structure and other facilities provided in the schools at Dimapur ......................... 108
5.14  Table showing details of source of finance of pre-primary schools in Dimapur......................................................... 110
5.15  Table showing the analysis of the data on fee structure, in pre-primary schools in Dimapur........................................ 112
5.16  Table showing the trends in expenditure on salaries and non-salaries........................................................................ 113
5.17  Table showing the analysis of data on the trends of expenditure on non-salaries.............................................................. 114
5.18  Table showing the analysis on the problem faced in running the schools in pre-primary schools in Dimapur................. 117
5.19  Table showing the analysis on the suggestions/plans in toning the quality of work in schools........................................... 118
5.20  Table showing the achievement level of children covered in the study................................................................. 120
5.21  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on achievement level of children attending pre-primary classes... 121
5.22  Table showing comparative means scores on achievement development of pre-school children according to gender............ 121
5.23  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on achievement level of children according to the location of the school........................................................... 122
5.24  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on achievement level of children according to schools under different types of management........................................................................ 123

5.25 Table showing comparative means scores on achievement
Development of children according to socio-economic status................................................................................................ 124

5.26 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on language............................................................................. 125

5.27 Table showing comparative means scores on language development of pre-school children according to gender........... 126

5.28 Table showing comparative means scores on language development on pre and post-test of pre-school children according to the location of the school............................................ 127

5.29 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on language development of children according to schools under different types of management...................................................... 128

5.30 Table showing comparative means scores on language development of children according to socio-economic status................................................................................................ 129

5.31 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on numerical development of pre-school children........................... 130

5.32 Table showing comparative means scores on numerical
development of pre-school children according to gender............. 131

5.33 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on numerical development of children according to the location of the school..................................................................... 132

5.34 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on numerical development of children according to schools under different types of management...................................................... 132

5.35 Table showing comparative means scores on numerical development of children according to socio-economic status....... 133
5.36  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on general awareness of children attending pre-primary classes ................................. 134

5.37  Table showing comparative means scores on development of general awareness of pre-school children according to gender.... 135

5.38  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on development of general awareness of children according to the location of the schools .................................................. 136

5.39  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on general awareness of children according to schools under different types of management .......................................................... 137

5.40  Table showing comparative means scores on general awareness level, according to socio-economic status ...................... 138

5.41  Table showing the social development of pre-primary children covered in the study ................................................................. 140

5.42  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on social development of children attending pre-primary classes .. 140

5.43  Table showing comparative means scores on social development of pre-school children according to gender .......................... 141

5.44  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on social development of children according to location of schools ... 142

5.45  Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on social development of children according to schools under different types of management ........................................... 143

5.46  Table showing comparative means scores on social development of children according to socio-economic status .................. 144

5.47  Table showing emotional development of pre-primary children covered in the sample .......................................................... 145
5.48 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on emotional development of children attending pre-primary classes.................................................. 146

5.49 Table showing comparative means scores on emotional development of pre-school children according to gender...... 146

5.50 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on emotional development of children according to location of school................................................................... 147

5.51 Table showing comparative means scores on pre and post-test on emotional development according to schools under different types of management................................................... 148

5.52 Table showing comparative means scores on emotional development of children according to socio-economic status... 150