TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments.................................................. i

I The Teaching Profession and its importance................ 1

II The Secondary School Teacher - his place in the Profession........ 15

III Aptitudes and Aptitude Testing................................. 29

IV Aptitude for Teaching........................................... 48

V Plan of the Investigation........................................ 63

VI Test Construction and Administration of the Tryout Test........ 85

VII Administration of the Pilot Test for Item Analysis............ 168

VIII Administration of the Final Form of the Test for Standardisation........ 211

IX Statistical Analysis of the Data................................. 239

X The Estimation of Test Reliability............................... 292

XI The Estimation of Test Validity.................................. 329

XII Combining the Sub-tests in a Battery........................... 355

XIII The Factor Analysis of the Test Data.......................... 380

XIV Norms - their use in Personnel Selection..................... 400
XV Summary and Conclusions................................. 428

XVI Suggestions to the test-users......................... 442

* Appendix A............................................. 448
  - Ranking of Factors which seem to contribute
    Success in Teaching.

* Appendix B............................................. 450
  - Tryout Test Form.

* Appendix C............................................. 476
  - Principal's estimation of the teacher's work.

* Appendix D............................................. 478
  - Pilot Form of the Test.

* Appendix E............................................. 503
  - Final Form of the Test.

* Appendix F............................................. 522
  - The Answerbook.

* Appendix G............................................. 527
  - The Correct Answers.

* Appendix H............................................. 528
  - A model Scoring-Key for sub-tests IV and V.

* Appendix I............................................. 530
  - The list of Oral Instructions.

* Bibliography............................................. 531