Acknowledgement

It gives me immense pleasure to gratefully acknowledge the competent, meticulous and scintillating supervision provided by Prof. C.P.S. Chauhan, Dean, Faculty of Social Science, under whose supervision and able guidance, the present study came to its final shape.

I owe my deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. A.G. Madhosh, Former Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Kashmir for his guidance, encouragement, painstaking and whole hearted cooperation at every phase of my research that made it practically possible to complete my thesis successfully.

I have no words to express the debt of gratitude that I owe to my father who has stood me through thick and thin throughout my academic career. The present work is nothing but an encapsulation of his blessings. It is my pleasure and privilege to register my thanks to him.

Let me take this chance to express my sincere thanks to all the esteemed teachers of the Department of Education A.M.V. Aligarh especially Prof. Ruqaya Zain-u-din, Chairman Department of Education who helped me in carrying out this research work.
It is gratifying to record my warm personal thanks to all my family members especially parents in-law for their infinite love, inspiring encouragement and immeasurable co-operation.

I am admiring the patience, devotion and un-failing courtesy of my husband Muhammad Saleem Quareshi while I was busy in accomplishing my research programme. I am grateful to him for his moral support from the deeps of my heart.

I owe my special thanks to Prof. Sonuallah Mir Department of Philosophy A.M.U. Aligarh for his encouragement from time to time.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge my friends and colleagues for their support and encouragement.

I am also thankful to all non-teaching staff of Department of Education A.M.U. Aligarh especially to Muhammad Asif Khan.

This work is a tribute to all the victims of armed conflict in Kashmir. I am grateful to all the respondents who gave their precious time and shared with me their difficulties and taught me many poignant lessons.

In all humility, I am grateful to Almighty Allah for His blessings and guidance at every stage of my life.

Shahida Kounsar