ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep gratitude to Prof. E.N. Lall. Without his supervision and active interest, my present work would not have come complete.

I also wish to extend my thanks to UGC, Delhi and the concerned authorities of Tihu College, Tihu, whose helps at my needful hours have made my jobs easy and fruitful. Again, my thanks are offered to the encouraging inmates of the Department of English, NEHU, Shillong for their appreciations of my work.

On my enterprise to its completion, my deep appreciations and thanks are very much due to Balram Patro, Sashi, Balu and Mrs. R. Johns (typist) and other friends whose affections and helps in many ways have made me feel indebted.

Last but not the least, my heartfelt thanks go to Prof. M. Malla (Philosophy) NEHU, Shillong, with whom my informal dialogues at times, without his knowing perhaps, have steadied my present study to see the light of this day.
