ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to a number of people who have helped me in numerous ways for the successful completion of my work on this thesis.

First of all I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide, Dr. P.M. Chacko. His great scholarship, prudent observations, perceptive critical comments and painstaking efforts to improve the quality of my work, have been steering me in the proper direction of research, from the beginning to the end. Moreover his deep patience and kind understanding, have helped me to overcome some particularly difficult times, when the odds seemed insurmountable. I thank Mrs. Mariaugusta Chacko also whose warm hospitality and generous, optimistic nature never failed to inspire me.

I wish to place on record my thanks to Dr. Alphy Plakkoottam and Dr. Issac Sequeira, A.S.R.C., Hyderabad, whose valuable comments helped me to decide on the topic. The A.S.R.C., supported my stay at their hostel and lent me books and xeroxed materials. I appreciate immensely the invaluable support lent to me by Ms. Aisha Ravindran, St.Teresas College, Ernakulam, who is my friend, philosopher and guide since our undergraduate days at Vimala College, Thrissur. I also wish to thank Sri. Balakrishna Warrier the retired Professor and Head of the English Department of M.P.M.M.S.N.T. College, Shoranur and P. Gangadharan, Lecturer, S.N. College, Alathoor, for their long discussions about my work.
I am thankful to Dr. Rajan Varghese, the Principal of U.C. College, Alwaye for his prompt and sympathetic response when ever he was approached. I am grateful to Prof. Suseela George, Head of the Department of English and the staff for their timely help and useful suggestions. I cannot adequately thank the Librarian and the library staff of the College for their helpful attitude. A word of thanks is due to Ms. V.K. Subadra and Ms. K. Saraswathy, U.C. College, Alwaye for their loving concern and good wishes which reduced the tension of my repeated journey from Shoranur to Alwaye and back.

I am grateful to my Principal Prof. K.U. Arunan, former Principal, Dr. Sudha Kumari and the members of the English Department, Sri. A. Ravisegaran, Smt. Sakunthala A.I. and Ms. Smitha. N. for their co-operation and encouragement.

My daughter Sandhya is the person who suffered much because of my repeated absence from home. Without the cheerful support and loving encouragement from my husband Anand, this work would have been impossible. I gratefully remember my mother, brothers, sister and my late father whose words strengthened and supported me.

I also wish to thank Ajay, Anil, Beena, Sindhu, Sumesh, Vinod and all people who have contributed in anyway to complete this tedious task successfully.
