ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am scared if my humble endeavour would have culminated into a presentable thesis had I not been privileged with the generous help, motivation, support, guidance and counseling from a wide variety of persons and organizations at all stages of my work. I therefore, feel so much thankful and obliged to all of them that I find every conceivable expression grossly inadequate to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of them.

First of all, I take this as an great privilege to sincerely and profoundly thank my revered guide, Dr. Dillip Kumar Das, Sr. Lecturer in Tourism (MBA) Department of Business Administration, The University of Burdwan, Burdwan, West Bengal, who in spite of his varied occupations and responsibilities has been a constant source of encouragement, support and inspiration for supervising the thesis.

I indebted and grateful to Dr Bivaraj Bhusan Parida, Head, Department of Business Administration(Tourism), The University of Burdwan, for his kind encouragements and advice His support and inspiration has been the lifeline through which the present research has passed from the conception to the completion stage.

I also express my profound gratitude to the esteemed Dr. Sarat Kumar Lenka, Nodal Officer, IITTM, Bhubaneswar and my colleagues at Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management for their help and encouragement.

I thankfully acknowledge the role of my teachers, well wishers, friends and relatives for their inspiration and encouragement.

I owe a deep sense of my gratitude to my beloved parents and sisters. It is, indeed, they who had inducted me into this pious mission of teaching. Finally, I am grateful to the ALMIGHTY without his blessing nothing will happen on this earth.
