ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance and the help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study.

First and foremost, my utmost gratitude to Prof. Sujata Gurudev for her unselfish and unfailing support as my dissertation Supervisor whose sincerity and encouragement I will never forget and without her this thesis would not have become a reality.

Prof. Milton S. Sangma, Pro-Vice Chancellor, ICFAI, Tura whose vast fund of knowledge has been my inspiration as I handled all the obstacles in the completion of this research work.

Prof. Caroline R. Marak, former Head of the Department of Garo, who until her day of retirement had kind concern and consideration regarding my research requirements.

Dr. Jova Ch. Marak, Assistant Professor of the Department of English for her steadfast encouragement to complete this study;

Dr. Fameline K. Marak and Dr. Jacqueline R. Marak, Assistant Professors of the Department of Garo, for the insights she has shared;

Dr. Dokatchi Ch Marak, Teacher in Charge of the Department of Garo, for the moral support despite her just being newly appointed;
Jyotirmoy Prodhani, Head of the Department of English, for the moral support;

Pangsang R N Sangma, my research Assistant who toured with me and help me collect materials from interior parts of Garo Hills;

Sembertush Sangma for being accommodating to all my queries and sharing his expertise;

The staffs of the Garo and English Departments for all the help;

Wonderful people from the different villages of Garo Hills I have visited;

My best friends Susan Pariat and Hemen Kalita for helping me get through the difficult times, and for all the emotional support, camaraderie, entertainment, and caring they provided;

My sisters, brothers in law, cousins, relatives for their continuous support in completing this thesis and the one above all of us, the omnipresent God, for answering my prayers for giving me the strength to plod on despite my constitution wanting to give up and throw in the towel, thank you so much Dear Lord;

I would be failing on my duty if I do not extend my heartfelt gratitude to University Grant Commission and the Officials for extending financial support by awarding Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship (RGNF) for the pursuit of this study;
Lastly, and most importantly, I wish to thank my parents, Mr. Greendash R. Marak and Mrs. Princeglloria B. Sangma from the core of my heart for supporting me thick and thin.
