ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Though Ph.D. is said to be a solitary journey, this work has been completed with the support of numerous people at different phases. Writing acknowledgment gives me an opportunity to thank all those people who have made my journey a wonderful experience.

First, I like to express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. S. T. Bagalkoti for being more than my supervisor, for invaluable advice, time, patience and encouragement. He has been my inspiration and motivation to choose my current path. He always reminds me of how to face difficulties with a smile. I am obliged to him for accepting me as his student and giving me opportunities to work in different projects, fieldworks and teaching me research skills with so much of patience. Sir has also taught me to be a good, active and confident person. I am always grateful to him.

I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. P. M. Honakeri, Chairman, Department of Economics, KUD, and also the Principal Investigator of UGC – Major Research Project under whom I worked as Project Fellow. This work could not have been carried out without the fellowship for the initial two years.

I am also grateful to Dr. L. D. Vaikunthe, Dr. H. H. Uliveppa, Dr. P. M. Savadatti, Dr. H. H. Gadawale, Dr. B. H. Nagoor, Dr. R. R. Biradar, Dr. Shivanand Nari Dr. H. H. Baradi and Dr. N. S. Mugadur for their valuable suggestions and encouragement. I sincerely acknowledge the timely support received from Gamanagatti Madam and Suresh Sir at Department Office, for helping me in all kinds of office works at University.

I would like to thank my fellow mates at Economics department, KUD – Dr. B. Sheshagiri, Ninganna, Virupaksha, Ravi, Mohan, Geeta, Anil, Ashfaq, Suresh, Shankar, Ajith, Sharath, Umesh, Venkatesh, Shankaranand, Pallavi, Sangangouda and Hemalata. A special word of thanks to Kadapatti Madam for her constant words of encouragement.

I express my sincere gratitude to the librarian and staff members of Karnataka University Library, Dharwad, CMDR Library, Dharwad, ISEC Library, Bangalore and K. N. Raj Library (CDS), Trivandrum.
I would like to thank Ganapati Hegde, Girish Naik, Santosh Sawant, Babu Naik, Annappa Bhovivaddar, Babu Haller, Amar Gurav, Mohan Pagi, Paulo, Vishwanath Bhandari, Vinayak Bariker and Guru Naik – for being with me in different places during field work.

My special thanks to Varadakka for being behind me in refining my views and thoughts. It was a great learning experience while working with her during the initial days of my Ph.D. work.

I am very lucky enough to have a bunch of friends, who were even my ‘informal doctoral committee’, supporting me intellectually, emotionally and morally. Thanks to Jaya, for being a concerned sister and for all critical comments and suggestions at various stages of my work. Umesh and Sumit – the best statisticians, I know under the sky. I have learnt much of the statistics from them, through terrible and weird examples. Joyful university days spent with them, while having food, watching movies, cooking, late night discussions, chatting, surprise treats are unforgettable. Both always scared me about the completion of my thesis. Thank you Statisticians! Many thanks to Sarfraz, who always had ears and time to listen to me, about my work and my grumblings. Special thanks to Sharanayya, who always wanted me to complete this work soon. Thanks to Kailash, Kiran, Dinesh, Avadhoot, Bhimu, Sarvade Sir and Ali for being with me. Thanks to Shashank, Dinu, Shiva, Abhijith, Santosh, Sharath, Reagan, Muttanna, Shrikanth, Prashanth, Shakeel, Sheeja, Shruti, Harsha, Vijay, Ganesh, Sudarshan, Supriya, Alka, Shrijith, Gouri, and Bharath for their support.

I cannot forget to say ‘thank you’ to Kanak Sir, and Suman Madam (from my Dandeli College) for fairly convincing (‘brainwashing’) me to do Ph.D. and guiding me to be what I am today. I am eternally thankful to R. G. Hegde Sir (from my Dandeli College) for suggesting me the right path when I was in utter dilemma.

‘Thanks’ is just a word to my beloved parents for their encouragement, support, love and care even during all the odd times. Many thanks to Rajanna, Manjanna, Satishanna, Sanjanna, Nagaraja and all my relatives for being my well-wishers.
Dedicated to......

My Parents

and

My Teachers