“Guru Brahma Gurur Vishnu, Guru Devo Maheshwaraha
Guru Saakshat Para Brahma, Tasmai Sree Gurave Namaha”

Means Guru is a Bramha, Vishnu and Maheshwara. We see the God in our Teacher I bow to my teacher by heart.

Guru means a teacher, guide, a director who gives the direction of our life and motivate to do progress. I really get the lend hand of dignity who gives an internal and social spur and inspiration at the Ph.D. deseration. Every pupil has a duty to obligate our teacher who inspired and co-operate him in his work with a will.

In the life of person there are some responsibilities and duties toward our mother, teacher and society we just try to fulfill these responsibilities, but over and above not completed. But as regards for considerate their duties and blessings for me. I tried to vote of thanks to them. I dedicate the desertation to my respective mother savitra, father Nivrutti, Gentle brother sudam and all sisters. I thanks to all elder younger of the family members to give me good wishes and blessing to me.

With great fealty I thank to Dr.Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University to give me an opportunity. Each opportunity made a golden way by the guidance of a guide who get the better of to me and help to complete the research. I really thanks to honorable and respective Dr. I. D. Nath Mam.
