CONTENTS

Chapter -I:

Introduction:

Section I
The Concept of Ageing
Who are all aged?
Dimensions of Ageing
Perspectives on Ageing
Life cycle theories
Buhler's Theory of cycle life
Erikson's eight stages of Human Development

Section II
Review of Literature

Section III
Methodology of the Study.
Statement of the Problem
Objectives of the Study
Universe
Sample
Tool for data collection
Data Processing Technique

Chapter II:

The Elderly: Demographic Scenario in India

Section I
Elderly in India
Demographic profile of Elderly in India
Changing status of elderly in India

Section II
Nature and emerging issues of ageing in India
Ageism
Elder abuse
Problems of aged
Biological problems
Ecological problems
Psychological problems
Socio-cultural problems
Housing problem
Adjustment problem

Page No
1-93
94-158
Chapter III: The Setting
Chennai City Profile
Location and area
History
Population of Chennai
The aged in Chennai
Old age homes in Chennai

Chapter IV: The Aged
Section I
Profile of the aged
Section II
Determinants for the admission
Section III
The Experiences of the aged in Old Age Home
Section IV
The Perceptions of the aged

Chapter V: Finding, Conclusions and Suggestions
Findings
Conclusions
Suggestions
Select Bibliography
Appendix