CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ........................................... i-iii
INTRODUCTION .............................................. 1-10

PART-1
HISTORICAL OVERVIEW ......................................

CHAPTER - 1 POLICE: A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE ............... 11-50
A. EVOLUTION OF THE CONCEPT OF POLICE
   Police during Mauryan Period (320-548 AD):
   Police Administration in South India
   Administration under the Guptas
   Police under Islamic Rulers
   Police under Mughals and Marathas
   British Period
   Police Commission, 1860
   Changes through the Indian Police Act of 1861
   European Military Officers as Police Officers
   Indian Police Commission 1902-03
   Post-independence Period
B. KERALA POLICE-A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE
   The Emergence of Police Force
   Modernisation of Police
   Police in Cochin State
   Police in Malabar
   Police in Travancore - Cochin State
   Police in Kerala

CHAPTER - 2 A GLIMPSE OF THE HISTORY OF HUMAN RIGHTS 51-92
VIOLATIONS BY POLICE .....................................
A. EVOLUTION OF THE CONCEPT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
   Evolution of the concept Human Rights in India
   Period of 1200-1757 A.D
   British Period
   Evolution of Constitutional Rights
B. HISTORY OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN POLICE CUSTODY
   Police under Islamic and British Rule
   Independence and after
   Emergency Period
The First Emergency and its Continuance
The Second Emergency and its Prolongation
During the Janata Regime
In the Eighties
After Eighties

PART 2
PATTERN OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

CHAPTER - 3 CUSTODIAL VIOLENCE AND PERSECUTION IN LOCK-UPS 93-127

Illegal Detention and Manipulation of Records of Detention
Prolonged and Uncomfortable Detention
Torture
Custodial Death
Accommodation, Food, Medical Care and Clothing
Denial of Access to Counsel
Denial of Opportunity to Interact between Detainee and His Near and Dear Ones

CHAPTER - 4 OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS:

THE UNATTENDED CATEGORIES 128-160

Arbitrary Arrest and Use of Excess Force
Use of Excess Force
Failure to Notify the Arrest
Unnecessary Handcuffing
Fictitious Memo of Arrest
Failure to Inform the Ground of Arrest
Arbitrary Denial of Bail
Using of Filthy Language and Character Assassination.
Fabrication of Evidence against Persons in Custody

CHAPTER - 5 VICTIMS OF POLICE EXCESSES 161-190

Dalits and Adivasis
Women
Children
Politicians and Human Rights Activists
Weaker Sections of the Community
PART 3
CAUSES AND CURE

CHAPTER - 6 HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS: CAUSATIVE FACTORS

Familial and Social Cause
Traditional Cause
Economic Cause
Corruption
Political Interference
Defects in Investigation System
The Existing Problems in Statutory Provisions and Judicial System
Lack of Judicial Vigilance
Lack of Supervision of Lock-ups
Defects in Recruitment and Training
Defective Promotion System
Vast Powers of Discretion
Stress and Strain
Statistical Guillotine
Lack of Public Co-operation
Need of Interrogation Rooms
Psychological Reasons

CHAPTER - 7 ENDEAVORS TO PREVENT HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

A. JUDICIAL RESPONSE
Right against Arbitrary Arrest and Detention
Right to be Informed of the Ground of Arrest
Right to Counsel at the Time of Police Interrogation
Right against Capricious and Unnecessary Handcuffing
Right Against Torture and Custodial Death
Custodial Rights of Women
Right to Compensation

B. HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSIONS
National Human Rights Commission
State Human Rights Commission

C. WOMEN'S COMMISSION

D. COMMISSIONS OF INQUIRY

E. VOLUNTARY ORGANISATIONS

F. WORK OF INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATIONS

G. ROLE OF MEDIA AND CINEMA

H. OFFICIAL CONDEMNATION OF CUSTODIAL VIOLENCE

I. HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS
Necessity for Elimination of Corruption in the Police System
Political Interference- a Hurdle on Police
Need for the Increase of Manpower
Modern Technology in Scientific Investigation
Electronic Recording of Interviews
Polygraph Test
Need for Judicial Vigilance
Mobile Judicial Unit
Joint Effort of Central and State Government
Precautions to be Taken in Recruitment and Training
Human Rights Oriented Initial Police Training
In-service Training on Human Rights for Police Personnel
Remedial Measures against the Arbitrary Use of Police powers
Public Co-operation
Re-structuring the Police Station
Custody Records
Central Reception Facility for Arrestees
Need for Decent Clothing
Professionalism in Police
Need of a Code of Conduct
Relevant Amendments to be Made
Redressal Mechanism
Public Grievance Cells
District Complaints Boards
State Security Commission
Civilian Control (Custodial Justice Committee for the Supervision of Places of Detention)
Withholding the Legal Standards in Extra-ordinary Circumstances of Arrest and Transparency in Police Functions

CHAPTER - 9 CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

APPENDICES
INDEX OF CASES
STATUTES REFERRED ABBREVIATIONS
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY