Acknowledgements

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my respected guide Dr. Kirit H. Shukla for throwing light for the vision of research and his insightful guidance, as well as his kind and encouraging attitude during my research work.

I am grateful to the Registrar of Singhania University Dr. Anil Yadav for providing me learning resources at Singhania University. I am also grateful to the research team members of Singhania University Dr. Sumer Singh, Dr. Krishan Kumar and Dr. Pawan Kumar for their kind and valuable support.

I am very grateful to our honourable Chairman (V.V.P. Engineering College) Shri "Pravinkaka" for giving me continuous encouragement and motivation for my career development. I am also thankful to our Principal Dr. Sachin Parikh for providing me all the required research resources at college (my job place) itself. I am also thankful to respected Dr. Badvantbhai Jani for giving me direction of research.

I am heartly thankful to respected Dr. Shivdanbhai Charan, Navinbhai Barodia, all the librarians of respondent university libraries and the respected persons of library profession for their direct and indirect positive response and support.

I am grateful to my well-wisher Mr. Jayesh Sanghani and Mr. Haresh Talatia who motivated me to develop myself in the library profession. I am greatful to my colleagues Dr. Tejas Patalia, Bharat Parmar and other staff members of V.V.P. Engineering College for providing me their valuable help.

I must not forget to mention thanks to late Shri Ashishbhai Maniar who inspired me forever.

I am thankful to my respected father Harshadbhai, mother Urmilaben and elder brother Rajanbhai for their kind blessings. I also thankful to my mother in-law Nitaben Poptani who bore many inconveniences to provide me the timely help for my family during my entire research work.

I can not miss the opportunity to give abundant thanks to my wife Hetal who selflessly not only helped me but motivated me in my journey of research. I would not have been able to complete the research without her continuous support.

My daughter Shruti and son Moksham are each word of my research, as their smile and love were the fuel to make me work.
