Acknowledgement

I would like to extend my thankful gratitude to the Hon'able Vice Chancellor, University of Kalyani for allowing me to undertake this research and to use the infrastructural and other facilities available at the University, particularly in the Department of Library and Information Science and in the Central Library.

I am highly appreciative of and grateful for the assistance and support that I have received from many people over the course of my Ph.D. works.

First, I want to express my gratitude to my research supervisor and mentor Sri Sabuj Dasgupta, Associate Professor, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kalyani for his guidance, support and patience throughout the period.

I am very thankful to him for bringing a fresh perspective to my thesis, helping to take it to a higher level and showing me how to think of different parameters and their analysis of the work at a much deeper level. So this work would not have been completed without his strenuous supervision and constant guidance.

I am very thankful to Late Dr. Bidhan Chandra Biswas, under whose guidance I am able to initiate this work. I could not even think to do this study without the help and guidance of such enthusiastic and energetic person.

A debt of gratitude is owed to Sri Santosh Kumar Tunga, my friend, philosopher and guide in true sense. Sincere thanks to my revered teachers Dr. Juran Krishna Sarkhel, Dr. Partha Sarathi Mukhopadhyay and Dr. Sibsankar Jana for giving me tremendous encouragement, support and appropriate suggestions.
I would be failing in my duties, if I do not express my sincere thanks to the persons who have extended necessary support for providing useful information and valuable suggestions. First of all, I would like to mention one of my dearest friends, Sri Avijit Malakar, Senior Scientific Assistant (Library), Saha Institute of Nuclear Physics, Kolkata for spending his valuable time to enrich my research work. Specially, I am thankful to the Chief Librarian, Dy. Librarian and Mr. Lakshman Sarkar, Mr Sukalyan Majumder Mr. Debasish Chakraborty and other professionals of the Central Library of the University of Kalyani.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the encouragement and support of my daughter and my wife. I would like to acknowledge with great respect my beloved parents. I am also indebted to the authority of my school.
