ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasant duty to thank those who have helped me carrying out my research work.

At the very outset I pay my homage to my revered Guru Swami Sadhanananda Giri, but for whose afflatus the work would not see the light of the day.

The idea of undertaking such a topic was given to me by Prof. Gopal Chandra Khan. He is the supervisor of my work. Without his unfailing inspiration, affectionate guidance and painstaking efforts, the research work on such a critical subject could never have been accomplished and taken the present shape. I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I shall fail in my duty if I miss to acknowledge with gratitude the immense help I received from Prof. Amit Kumar Mallik, the honourable Vice Chancellor of the University of Burdwan, at a very critical juncture.

Dr. Pratap Bandopadhyaya, a retired Professor of Sanskrit of the University of Burdwan helped me in going through some of the ancient Sanskrit texts and pointing out the relevant portions in them. I am deeply indebted to him.

I offer my reverential pranams to all the teachers of the Department of Philosophy of the University of Burdwan who have always extended their hands of co-operation.

I may also put on record my profound gratitude to the teachers of the Department of Philosophy of Jadavpur University where I completed my undergraduate studies. At their hands I received my primary initiation into Philosophy.

Śāstras direct us to perform pitṛyajña as a part of repaying the fivefold debts one owes to the universe. On my part, however, I do not think I am blessed enough to be able to repay the debts I have incurred to my parents. Yet I take this opportunity to prostrate myself at their feet and ask for their blessings. They have relived me from all household duties during the period of my research work.

Finally, I do not want to minimize the silent contributions of two more persons by offering them dry thanks. One is my wife. She is truly gifted with the natural qualities of a sahadharminī. The other is my beloved Kakima, wife of my supervisor. Her motherly affection and hospitality solaced me in many of my struggling days.

“Goutami”, Jhapantala
20 Mahatab Road, Burdwan
Pin-713 104

Ahinpunya Mitra