Acknowledgements

"Give thanks to the Lord for He is good,
His loving kindness lasts forever". Psalms: 118.

With immense gratification and deep contentment, I remember here God Almighty - the Alpha and the Omega - who is the source of inspiration, sustenance and completion of this work.

I express my earnest gratitude and sincere thanks to my most respected teacher, research adviser and guide, Dr. R. Balachandran, who magnanimously offered all possible help to complete this thesis successfully on time. I am most grateful for his kind inspiration, encouraging motivation, thoughtful concern, valuable views and remarkable observations. His scholarly guidance and gentle thrust enabled me to progress in this endeavor with confidence.

I cannot but remember and express my earnest gratefulness to Mrs. Manjula Balachandran for her magnanimous and benign hospitality shown and shared in myriad forms and Mr. Palani, for his many little actions of sincere service.

I offer my thanks to the staff of SCILET, Madurai for helping me with regard to the secondary sources. I also thank all the staff of Mohan Ramesh Library at CIEFL, Hyderabad and IACIS, at Hyderabad, for their kind co-operation and valuable support in my collection of secondary sources.

With gratitude, I thank all the Elders of our Congregation, for their inspiring words of wisdom and gracious actions of encouragement, which provided me with the necessary impetus to proceed with my work.
I have to mention my deep gratitude to the Holy Spirit Adoration sisters, Bangalore for their benevolent and powerful prayer-support without which this task would not have been completed.

With benign care and thoughtful concern, I remember my family members, especially my sister, Mrs. Usha Subbian and my brother-in-law Mr. K.S.Subbian who evinced keen interest in my work, and provided me with the necessary help in the collection of necessary primary and secondary sources and in the printing of the thesis. I thank them whole-heartedly with deep sentiments.

I owe my sincere thanks to all my Department colleagues for their cheerful support in many meaningful ways. Personal thanks are due to numerous people, specially to ‘those thoughtful people’ and ‘hidden helping hands’ for their unflinching support in times of crisis. To everyone else who has made the work an interesting and enjoyable one, a ‘big thanks’.

Finally, I extend my thanks to all the staff of Docupoint, the printers, for their excellent job of making this thesis to its presentable form.
Note on Documentation

The MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers (Sixth edition, 2004) has been followed in documenting the sources. Wherever the quoted sources are obvious, particularly with reference to the primary sources, the page number in parenthesis alone has been provided. The shortened abbreviated versions of titles have been given, where one text of an author has been repeatedly cited / listed, in due compliance with the MLA guidelines. The electronic sources have been documented, quoting the date of creation or modification of the website. The abbreviated titles of the primary sources are given hereunder:

Ladies Coupe: A Novel in Parts by Anita Nair ...................... LC
The Thousand Faces of Night by Githa Hariharan ................ TFN
When Dreams Travel by Githa Hariharan ...................... WDT
Inheritance by Indira Ganesan ..................................... IN
The Journey by Indira Ganesan ..................................... Jny