ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasure to express my profound gratitude to Dr. K.V. Raju, Reader and Head of the Department of Economics, S.H. College, Thevara, Cochin for his inspiring guidance, encouragement and whole-hearted co-operation. Without his deep involvement by way of critical comments, constructive ideas, and perseverance with my extended time schedules, this research work would not have materialised. I would like to acknowledge my sincere thanks to the former Principals, and also the present Principal of S.H. College, Rev. Fr. Saviance, for giving me opportunity to do the research in the Research Centre, Department of Economics, S. H. College, Cochin.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. K. Cherian Verghese, the former Chairman of South Indian Bank Ltd, Thrissur, for giving immediate sanction for joining the research programme. I am thankful to Mr. V.P. Joseph, General Manager and Mr. Alex Mathew, Dy. General Manager, of South Indian Bank Ltd for issuing No Objection Certificate from the bank for submission to the University. My special thanks are due to Mr. P.R. Radhakrishnan, Asst. General Manager, Foreign Exchange Department of the bank for magnanimously allowing me the required leave for the research.

I am gratefully indebted to Prof. P.P. Pillai, my Professor and the former Head of the Department of Economics, University of Calicut, for his valuable suggestions and insights into the topic of research. My sincere thanks are due to Dr. K.N. Harilal, Associate Fellow of the Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, who helped in formulating proper perspectives on certain topics. I have benefited from discussion with Mr. Christy Fernandez, IAS, the former Chairman of the Coir Board. I am also indebted to Mr. P. Ajith Kumar, Dy.
Director, Coir Board and P. Sreekumar, Asst. Director, Spices Board, for discussion on some very relevant issues related to research.

My sincere thanks are due to many persons who were immensely helpful in providing the required secondary data from various sources. I have to mention the names of Mr. Roy Joseph, Asst. Director, Spices Board, Cochin, Mr. Anil Kumar V.K. Technical Officer, CDS Library, Thiruvananthapuram, Mr. Sasidharan Nair K. Technical Officer, MPEDA, Cochin, Mr. N. Parameswaran, Dy. Librarian, University Library, Thiruvananthapuram, Mr. Majid H. Technical Officer, World Bank Data Resources Centre, University Library, Thiruvananthapuram. Thanks are due to the officials of the following libraries for giving me access to the resources: CDS Library, TVM; Kerala University Library, TVM; Library of the Department of Applied Economics, Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT), Cochin; Library of the School of Management Studies, CUSAT, Cochin; University Main Library, CUSAT, Cochin; and Economics Library of S.H. College, Cochin. I am thankful to the librarians and other officials of the following institutions for rendering relevant inputs and resources: Spices Board, Cochin; Coir Board, Cochin; MPEDA, Cochin; Cashew Export Promotion Council, Cochin and Cochin Special Economic Zone, Cochin. I also thank all the exporters who participated in the survey conducted for the research. Thanks are due to officials of the Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam and S.H. College, Cochin for completing formalities related to the research.

I am grateful to many of my relatives, friends and well-wishers for their encouragement. Needless to mention, I owe the greatest debt to my mother, wife and daughter for their prayers, help and patience with my preoccupations of research.

Now, may I invoke blessings of the Almighty for successful accomplishment of my endeavours. Ouseph. T. P
