Paper Publications:

2. Promises are Meant to be Broken: An Oicotype Study of Two Tales, in Orality and Beyond: A North-East Indian Perspective, published by the Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi, 2008.

5. Traditional and Modern Khasi Riddles: An Analytical Study, paper to be published by E-Journal Folklore and Folkloristics.

Paper Presentations in Seminars/Conferences

1. Promises are meant to be Broken: An Oicotype Study of Two Tales, paper presented, at the National Seminar on Orality and Beyond: A North-East Indian Perspective organized by the Sahitya Academy, 2005.

2. From Chief to King: The Discourse of Homogeny, paper presented at the National Seminar on Oral Discourse and Ancient Knowledge Systems of North-East India, organized by Indian Folklore Congress, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong, India, 20th-22nd September 2006.

4. The Interface of History and Orality: An Analytical Study of Chohnia of War-Jaintias, paper presented at the National Seminar on Folklore and Indian social Discourse, organized by Indian Folklore Congress, Kuppam University, Andhra Pradesh, India. 18th-20th December, 2008.

9. Modern Communication System as a New Medium of Folklore, paper present at the National Seminar organized by the Dept. of Cultural and Creative Studies, NEHU, Shillong, 26th - 28th September, 2011.

10. Khasi Folk Technology: The Study of the Khasi Living Root Bridges, paper presented at the national Seminar organized by the Indian Folklore Congress at the Central University of Jharkhand, Ranchi.

Current status: Ph.D scholar in the Department of Cultural and Creative Studies, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong-22, Meghalaya, India.

Other Activities:

1. Member of International Society For Folk Narrative Research

2. Member of Indian Folklore Congress.

3. Member of Tribal Literary Forum of India.

4. Academic Counselor for Bachelor Programme in English at Indira Gandhi National Open University. (IGNOU).

5. Assistant Teacher at Sohkha Government Higher Secondary School, Sohkha, Meghalaya, India.

I hereby declare that all the information furnished above is true to the best of my knowledge.
Dear Rimika Lanong,

I am to inform you that your article, titled “Traditional and Modern Khasi Riddles: An Analytical Study” is accepted for the e-journal FOLKLORE AND FOLKLORISTICS. This will be uploaded in December 2011 issue.

The journal is uploaded by National Folklore Support Centre, Chennai. The CD of the said issue of the journal has already been sent to NFSC. They will upload it very soon.

Thanks for your valuable contribution to FOLKLORE AND FOLKLORISTICS.

You can use this letter for official purpose.

Best wishes.

Dr. Sk. Makbul Islam
Editor-in-Chief
Folklore and Folkloristics

E-mail
ife@rediffmail.com
skmakbulislam@rediffmail.com

Phone: 09830309751