Acknowledgements

My foremost greatest thank goes to Prof. Dr. Ranjan Saikia, my thesis supervisor. I thank him for his patience and encouragement that carried me on through Ph. D. works, and for his insights and suggestions that helped to shape my research skills. His intelligence and positive thought had been always an important incentive and invested in my improvement in the scientific world. I am grateful not only for his supervision of my doctoral study, but also for his making it at all possible. I would like to express my gratitude towards his ideas both confirmed and further inspired my thoughts on the importance of human influences on the geomorphic landscape.

Particular thanks go to Dr. Pulin Bora, Senior lecturer of Nagaon College for all him support in the field survey. I wish to thanks Md. Mofijur Rahman, Junior Engineer of Sub division office of Irrigation Department, Dobaka for providing Discharge data and staff of Central Ground water Board, Guwahati for providing water level data without which this thesis would not have been possible. I would also want to thanks Mr. B. Das and staff of Kondoli Tea Estate for providing meteorological data and Office staff of Forest Office, Nagaon South division, Hojai for providing forest data. I gratefully acknowledge to Head of the Department Chemistry for laboratory test of some selected parameters of water.

Dr. Nripen Ram Kalita, Mr. Dhanjit Deka and Mr. Pranjit Sarma deserve specials thanks for help in digitizing and map making in ERDAS 8.7 and Arc GIS software. I gratefully acknowledge to Dr. Sarat Deka and Dr. Nibedita Goswami for help in statistical data analysis. Also, I would like to thanks all teaching and non teaching stuff in the Geography Department at B. Borooah College and Cotton College. I want to thanks them for all their help, support, interest and encouragements. I would like special thanks to Gunajit Sarma, who help to do my study successfully. I would like to thank my friend Miss Ranjeeta Bonjong, Mr. Bijayanta Goswami for help in field survey. In particular, I would like to thank my brother Himangsu Deka Baruah for company me in the field which is far from my resident.

My greatest thank goes to my mother Smti Bijaya Thakuriah for everything she did for me and my sisters, my uncle for all support during this period.
