ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of heartfelt thanks and gratitude to Dr. Indranee Dutta, Reader, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati, for her unstinted supervision and guidance, constant encouragement, constructive criticism and help at different stages of the study, which have enabled me to complete this work.

The author expresses sincere thanks to the authorities of various libraries from where invaluable references were collected for her work. Mention must be made of the libraries of Krishna Kanta Handique Library (Gauhati University); North Eastern Hill University Library; National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) Library, New Delhi; Indian National Scientific Documentation Center (INSDOC), New Delhi; Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi; and the National Library, Kolkata.

In the course of the study, the author received immense cooperation from a large number of students, teachers, parents, heads of institutions, the authorities of the private companies implementing computer education course in the schools, who have patiently responded to the queries during the investigation. The author acknowledges with gratitude the cooperation received from them.

Thankful acknowledgements are due to, the officials of the Board of Secondary Education, Assam (SEBA) for rendering constant help during the work.
Thankful acknowledgements are due to the authority of Assam Higher Secondary Education Council for permitting me to do this work and my colleagues Mr. Arpan Kumar Barman, Purandar Sharma, Sarat Chandra Gohain, and other well wishers specially Mr. N. K. Barman and Dr. Jitram Dutta for their constant help and encouragements.

The author is indebted to Dr. Rita Goswami, Dr. Umesh Chandra Goswami, Mr. Prasanta Jyoti Baruah and Mrs. Bonti Baruah, Mr. S. Nair for their immense help during the course of this work.

Thankful acknowledgement are due to Dr. N. Saha, Reader, Zoology Department of North Eastern Hill University and Mrs. Pahari Saha who has helped me a lot in collection of references and other correspondences during the course of investigations. Thanks also due to Mr. Rabindra Nath Dutta, Director in charge Assam Forensic Laboratory for his constant encouragement and inspiration. Thanks also extended to Mr. Rabin Sarma for taking pain in the process of finalization of this work.

I am indebted to my parents, my in laws, uncle Dr. Nagen Ch. Das, Ex. HoD and Dean of Commerce, Gauhati University, all the members of my family specially my two daughters Rupankana and Nilankana, for their encouragement in the pursuit of higher studies. Last but not least, I am very much thankful to my husband Dr. Balendra Kumar Das for his constant encouragement during the tenure of this work.

Date : (Indrani Das)