ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take the opportunity to acknowledge my sincere indebtedness and gratefulness to Professor Nagen Thakur, former Head Department of Assamese, Gauhati University under whose supervision and guidance I completed this research work. Inspite of his heavy engagement Prof. Thakur could spare his valuable time and made it possible for me to complete the work so soon. His such keen interest and encouragement is really a source of inspiration in my research. I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Nagen Thakur.

I am also grateful to all my staff members and colleagues of Gauhati University, Kokrajhar Compus, specially Dr. Sekhar Brahma, Jt. Registrar of the Compus and departmental colleagues for their help and encouragement in my research. Moreover I express my hearty thanks to Dr. Dilip Borah, Reader and Head, Deptt. of Assamese, Gauhati University, Kokrajhar Compus and Dr. P.K. Patra, Reader and Head, Deptt. of English Gauhati University Kokrajhar Campus.

It will be quite injustice on my part if I don’t mention the name of most honoured Dr. Pramod Chandra Bhattacharya and his Research work, ‘A Descriptive Analysis of the Boro Language’ a pioneer thesis on the Boro language, who had finalised the proposed title of my research work at the beginning.

I am also highly thankful to Sri Nabin Pradhan and Sri Yashu Pradhan who have done D.T.P. composing within a short time taking responsibility and keeping all their other works aside.
