ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Right from the conceiving of the idea up to the completion of the work I have received immense help and inspiration from many institutes and individuals and I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to them.

First of all, I would like to record my profound gratitude to Dr. Rita Rani Talukdar, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, Gauhati University, Guwahati, without whose able supervision, untiring guidance and constant encouragement with her wide knowledge and experience this work would have remained a dream unfulfilled.

I am grateful to Professor (Dr.) Indranee Phookan Borooah, Head, Department of Psychology, Gauhati University for her inspiration, help and valuable suggestions which she provided time to time.

I offer my thanks to all honourable faculty members of the Department of Psychology, Gauhati University, Guwahati for their co-operation and inspiration.

I am thankful to Dr. Sikhamoni Konwar, Principal, Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College, Sixmilen, Guwahati for her encouragement and extending necessary help in this regard.

I am very much indebted to all my colleagues in the Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College for their invaluable inspirations.

I must express my gratitude to my colleagues Rupali Sen Deka and Manjeeta Lahkar of the Department of Psychology, Karmashree Hiteswar Saikia College and Shyamsundar Sarma of Department of Disabilities, Gauhati University for their help and encouragement.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the help provided by the staff of K.K. Handique Library of the Gauhati University and the staff specially Mr. Ashim Basu of National Library, Kolkata.

I am thankful to the Department of Social Welfare, Government of Assam for allowing me for collection of data and necessary information for the study from the state run institutionalised residences.
The researcher extends her heartiest gratitude to the authorities of the institutionalised residences and the schools for their cooperation and help during the data collection.

I must be very grateful to all authors/ writers from whose writings I derived necessary information for this work.

I will remain greatly indebted to the entire sample (institutionalised and non-institutionalised children) who helped me in the collection of primary data for this study.

I owe a quite specific and substantial debt to my parents Dr. Harichandra Kalita and Smti Joymati Kalita and my parents- in-law Late Umesh Talukdar and Late Bimala Talukdar. Without their blessings, it would not have been possible for me to complete this work.

I express my sincere thanks to my brothers Dr. Simanta and Susanta, my elder brothers-in-law Shri Gauri Sankar Talukdar and Shri Aniruddha Talukdar, Sjt. Hemanta Kalita and Mrs. Malabika Kalita, my younger brother-in-law Nayan, my sisters-in-law Dipti and Malaya, my friends Daisy and Dipanjali, my nephews Dr. Kishore, Chiranjib, Gitartha and Anshuman, my nieces Rinki, Pinki, Anushka, Maina and Mau, for their best wishes. My special thanks also to Amarjyoti, Raju, Mani and Paresh for their helping hand.

I specially express my gratitude to my uncle Shri Tarun Kalita and younger brother-in-law Banamali Talukdar for their immense help to complete this work.

I am thankful to my husband Dr. Amarendra Talukdar for his sacrifices and patience at various stages in various ways and my beloved sons Nishant and Amit for their forbearance.

Finally, I may be excused for any errors and mistakes in the work.
