Acknowledgement

I received encouragement, guidance, co-operation and help from different individuals and institutions in various ways in completing the work and to all I would like to express my thanks and gratitude.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Dr. K.P. Bora, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University, whose able guidance and constant encouragement at every stage in the preparation of this have enabled me to surmount numerous difficulties and obstacles.

I am also grateful to my friends Mr. K.C. Baral and Mr. S.K. Ghosh both lecturers of NEHU, Aizawl campus for the valuable suggestions and encouragements I received from them.

My sincere thanks are also due to Mr. A. Tirkey, Secretary, ACMS, Golaghat circle and all other circle Secretaries of ACMS of Sibsagar district, the tea garden managers, School teachers, the Secretaries and the Presidents of the Garden units of the ACMS of the gardens of the sample, for their help and co-operation in conducting the field survey.
Mr Bharat Bora, Lecturer of Geography, Namti College, Sibsagar deserves my special thanks for doing the cartographic works of this report.

My father Mr N. Dutta who earned reputation as an able tea maker has also helped me in every possible way in completing this work. I owe deep sense of gratitude to him.

I also wish to record sincere thanks to my research colleagues, Mr Ucharan Deka and Mrs. Indranee Dutta who have helped me in various ways in completing this work.

I am also thankful to the staff of Gauhati University Library, North Eastern Hill University Library, Nehru Memorial Library, New Delhi, Library of the Ministry of Labour and Employment, New Delhi, Library of the Ministry of Education and Culture, New Delhi, for their help and co-operation in consulting their libraries.

Lastly, I shall remain highly obliged to the authorities of Aizawl College, Aizawl, Mizoram who took pleasure in granting me study leave, without which the completion of this piece of work would not have been possible.
