Chapter I: Introduction

- Importance of tea industry in India
- Tea growing areas of India
- Assam as a tea producing state
- Tea as a source of revenue to Assam
- Tea industry and the development of transport and communication system in Assam
- Tea and its ancillary industries
- Development of the tea industry in Assam
- Background to labour recruitment
- Depression in the industry
- Fraudulent recruitment and sufferings of the labourers
- Expansion of tea industry
- Occupational category of tea garden workers.
- Characteristics of tea plantation labourers
- Organisation and management
- The Tea Board of India
- Trade Union Movement in the tea plantations of Assam
- Summary
CHAPTER-II: Review of Literature:

(Education in India)
- Primary education (1937-47)
- Primary education (1947-81)
- Secondary education (1937-47)
- Secondary education (1947-81)
- Employment in India

(Education in Assam)
- Primary education (1937-47)
- Primary education (1947-81)
- Secondary education (1937-47)
- Secondary education (1947-81)
- Employment in Assam
- Unemployment
- Education in tea plantations
- The plantation Labour Act, 1951 and education
- Governments' take-over
- Primary school curriculum
- Employment in tea plantations of India
- Summary

CHAPTER-III: Methodology:

- Title
- Need and justification
- Objectives and limitations
- Hypotheses
- Selection of area
- Sampling
- Tools
- Treatment of data

CHAPTER-IV: Schools in Tea Gardens

- Schools in the sample
- Physical facilities
- Courses and curriculum
- Teachers - the headmasters
- Teachers - the assistants
- Enrolment and attendance
- School management and organization
- Teaching and examination
- Special problems
- Summary

CHAPTER V: Education in the Tea Gardens:
- Factors affecting education of the labourer's children
- Parents education
- Economic condition of the family
- Impact of alcoholism
- Parents' attitude
- Parental satisfaction and expectations
- Lack of encouragement by the garden authorities
- Negligence of girls' education
- Lack of proper atmosphere
- Lack of incentives
- School courses
- Summary

CHAPTER VI: Employment in tea Gardens:
- Recruitment procedure
- Kinds of unskilled occupation in plantations
- Wages and income
- Overtime work
- Other benefits
- Savings and expenditure
- Working and living conditions
- Essential facilities
- Scope of employment
CHAPTER VII: Unemployment in Tea Gardens: 293-331

- Reduction in employment opportunities
- Some general information of the sample of unemployed
- Type of unemployment
- Causes of unemployment
  - Population growth
  - Lack of education
  - Effect of technological change
  - Mobility
  - Unskilled
  - Limited scope of alternative employment
  - Retirement and termination
  - Strike
  - Economic weakness of the garden

- Summary

CHAPTER VIII: Observation and Discussion: 332-375

- Socio-cultural isolation
- Economic backwardness
- Exploitation by garden owners
- Education in tea plantations
  - Physical facilities
  - Academic aspects
  - Suggestions for improvement
- Employment in tea plantations
  - List of occupations
  - Employment in own garden
  - Working and living conditions
- Scope of further employment
- Training
- Employment outside the garden
- Unemployment
- Suggestions for improvement

Selected Bibliography 376-385
Appendices 1- xxxxxxxIII