ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my gratitude to my teacher and guide Dr. M. Taher, Professor, Department of Geography, Gauhati University for his suggestions and sustained inspiration in every step in bringing this thesis into shape.

I also extend my indebtedness to Dr. H.P. Das, at present Rector, Gauhati University, who made me available necessary facilities when he was Head of the Geography Department of this University.

I acknowledge the assistance rendered by Shri H. Dilipkumar Singh, Assistant Town Planning Officer, Government of Manipur at the time of collection of relevant statistics and rare maps relating to Imphal.

I shall be failing in my duties if I do not express my gratitude to Shri N.C. Sen, Ex-Principal, G.P. Women's College, Imphal, who released me in time to undertake this research work. I am also thankful to the Government of Manipur and the University Grants Commission, who encourage the teachers to pursue higher academic studies by sanctioning study leave and financial support.
I must further acknowledge the help, assistance and co-operation that I received from my colleagues, namely, Shri W. Prafullo Singh, Kumari Ch. Devola Devi, Kumari Ph. Birohini Devi and Shri S. Haba Singh and also Shri N. Manglem Singh, all of the Department of Geography, G.F. Women's College. I also thank Shri Kalicharan Das of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University for the pain he took in typing this thesis.

Lastly, I thank my wife Shrimati Ilh. Chandrakala Devi who was constantly encouraging me to undertake this work and made me free for it by shouldering the entire responsibility of managing the household affairs during my long absence.

Kh. Yaima Singh
