ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On the completion of this thesis, I feel immense pleasure in expressing my sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr (Mrs) Lakhayahira Datta, Reader, Department of Geography, Gauhati University, without her timely advise, healthy suggestion and sustained encouragement this work would not have been possible at all I am also thankful to our former and present principals, Mr. P. Dastidar, Mr. A.N Rai and Dr D.N Pathak, for their due permission. I also offer my thanks to my esteemed teachers of Geography Department, Gauhati University Prof. M Barthakur, Prof M. Taher, Prof N.N. Bhattacharjyya, Prof H N Sarma, Prof. M.M. Das, Prof R. Barman, Sri S P Sarma and my friend Prof A.K. Bhagabati, Presently Head of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University, my colleagues in the Geography Department, Pragjyotish College, Guwahati. My sincere thanks goes to my classmate Dr. B.C. Kalita, Head of the Department of Geography, Cotton College, Guwahati, Sri Narendra Nath Sarma, Retired Head of the Department of English, Damdama College, my wife Bina Patgiri, Sri Sarat Chandra Talukdar, both Senior Lecturer in Geography Department, Bajali College and Dr Utpal Talukdar, Geography Department, Arunachal University, for their valuable advice and help in preparing this thesis in various ways

I express thanks to those persons who helped me in different ways, particularly political leaders, educationists, social workers, businessmen, agriculturists, secretaries of various tribal sanghas, student leaders etc hailing particularly from the old (undivided) district of Goalpara

Thanks are due to the project officers, Integrated Tribal Development Projects of Goalpara, Bongaigaon, Kokrajhar and Dhubri, Sub-Deputy Collectors of different Revenue Circles, Sub-divisional Planning Officers of Social Welfare Department, Director, Census operation, Assam, Planning Officers of Social Welfare Department, Director, Tribal Research Institute, Assam, Guwahati, the Director and the employees of the department of Statistics and Economics, Assam, Guwahati, all of whom have helped me by providing data and other relevant information's collected by me for preparing this work.

Cont P/2
For preparation of maps and other cartographic works my sincere thanks goes to Homeswar Das, Lecturer in Geography, D.K. College Mirza. I am no niggard in thanking Jayanta Das, DTP operator of Monorama Printers, who had very sincerely done the DTP work for the thesis in a very short time.

Before closing this chapter, I must offer thanks to the concerned authorities of the Gauhati University for permission given to me for preparation and submission of this thesis “DEMOGRAPHIC AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC STRUCTURE OF SCHEDULED TRIBES IN OLD GOALPARA DISTRICT, ASSAM”.

(JAGANNATH PATGIRI)
Name of the Scholar
Head and Selection Grade Lecturer, Dept. of Geography, Pragjyotish College
Guwahati-781009, ASSAM

*************