Contents

List of Tables

Introduction

Chapter One: Ideological bases of the Early Communist Movement

I. The Industrial Revolution and Radical Ideas

Chapter Two: The Growth Of the Communist Movement In Kerala

I. Communism In Kerala Emerging from the Womb of the Congress Party
II. The Political bickering- The communist Strategy to Exploit the Situation
III. The Communist Rule in Kerala, 1957 General Election
IV. The C.P.I. Coming to Power Through the Ballot Box
V. The Kerala Experiment
VI. The Working of the Kerala Pattern of Communism
VII. The Kerala Liberation Struggle and the Downfall of the Communist Govt.

Chapter Three: The Split in the CPI in 1964

I. The Sino-Indian dispute and its impact on the C.P.I.
II. The C.P.I (Marxist) in Kerala from 1965 to 1966
III. The Consolidation of the C.P.I.(Marxist) in Kerala after 1965 Election

Chapter Four: Communist movement from 1967 to 1980

I. The Naxalite Movement

Chapter Five: The Communist movement in Kerala from 1980 to the present day

Conclusion and Summary

Bibliography

Index

Appendices