ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep felt gratitude to Dr. P. Geetha who supervised and guided my work with great care and concern. Her generously given support and her precious time spared to bring this work to a successful completion have been invaluable.

I am especially indebted to the Director and all my teachers of the School of Letters for their help and encouragement.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Smt. V. A. Marykutty, Principal, St. Michael’s College, Cherthala whose encouragement and favourable disposition facilitated the timely completion of this project.

This project would have been impossible without the cooperation of the teaching staff of the Department of English, St. Michael’s College, Cherthala who extended their help when I was busily engaged in research activities.

I place on record my sentiments of gratitude to Dr. Siby Varghese of Rubber Board, Kottayam for his support and inspiration.

I sincerely acknowledge the encouragement of the members of my family who were generous enough to bear with me during this busy period.
