ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words would, perhaps, be insufficient to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor, Prof. M.L. Kantha Rao, without whose co-operation and perennial encouragement, this work would not have taken this shape. At every stage he guided my work with patience, giving valuable suggestions and remained a source of inspiration.

Thanks are due to the District Employment Officer, Amantapur and the Statistical Assistant Mr. Kondaiah, who have provided me the necessary data and information with regard to my topic of research. Further, I am grateful to the Director of Employment and training, Hyderabad for his invaluable help in providing the necessary material.

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Sri Siddamuni, Regional Employment Officer, Kurnool for his valuable suggestions in the completion of this work.

I am thankful to the staff members of the Economics Department for their co-operation and help throughout the course of my research.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the University Authorities who have given me facilities to undertake research.
Thanks are due to Mrs. Vasantha, Steno-typist, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, who cooperated by promptly and neatly typing the draft without any delay.

I am also thankful to my friend Mr. C. Narinarayana Rao and sister Miss C. Vassalya for their assistance in classifying the data.

Finally, I shall be failing in my duty if I do not state with all humility, the many debts that I owe to my revered parents with whose benedictions, I am now what I am. What words are adequate to express my gratitude to them? Silence and service alone should be adequate.

G. MANGENDRA PRASAD.
