ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very beginning of my thesis I take the privilege to express my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to some persons without whose help and co-operation it would not have been possible on my part to complete the present work.

First of all, I offer my thanks to the authority and department of Anthropology of Gauhati University for providing me all the necessary facilities. I am specially thankful to my research guide Dr. Rekha Das, Professor Department of Anthropology for her untiring help and co-operation in each and every step of my work. I am equally thankful to the head and all the teachers of the Department of Anthropology for their valuable advice and suggestions at different time.

I sincerely acknowledge the help and co-operation of all the informants of the gardens – Rajgarh, Dirai and Pithagooti who despite their busy schedule spend a lot of time with me. I shall never forget the help of the doctors, nurses and office staff of the garden hospitals. At the same time I express my thanks to my uncle Mr. Robin Borkataky, Head of the Tea house of Rajgarh Tea Estate who took the burden of my stay in their residence for doing the field work.

I record my sincere thanks and gratitude to my father Prof. T.N. Borkataky and my husband Mr. Nabajit Goswami for their constant help and inspiration for completion of my work.
I cannot forget the help of my elder sister Mrs. Riti Sharma and my mother-in-law Mrs. Bulu Goswami who used to take care of my two years old son during my absence in home for research work outside. Therefore I owe my gratitude to both of them.

I am very much grateful to Prof. Narayan Chetri, of the Department of Geography, Cotton College for doing the graphs and maps in the computer.

Last but not the least I express my thanks to Prasanta Sarmah for taking the responsibility of composing and printing the thesis.
