At the very outset I offer my heartfelt gratefulness to Dr. Bharati Barua, former Head and Prof. (Retd.), Department of History, Gauhati University for her guidance and supervision in the completion of this research work by helping and inspiring in every moment from the beginning to the end.

I offer my gratitude to Dr. Narayan Das, the Principal, D.K. Girls’ College, Mirza for offering his valuable advice and even supplying datas too at any moment which highly inspired me for this work.

I have cast my devotional salutation to Srijut Nigamananda Adhikary, the Satrādhikāra of Chamarīyā Satra, who supplied datas and sources by every now and then at any moment extending helping hand in connection with this work.

I express my deepest thankfulness to Sri Akan Ch. Kalita, subject Teacher, Deptt. of English of Hekra H.S. School, Kamrup for his immeasurable help in my research work.

I bestow my heartfelt gratitude to Late Surja Mazumdar, a distinguish academician, a litterateur, a sports organiser who inspired and helped me in my beginning of this work by accompanying me in the field-work of various Satras and places of South Kamrup.

Again I express my deep sense of gratitude to each Satrādhikaras of the Mahāpuruṣīyā Satras and their respective members of the Satra Management Committee that are established in South Kamrup.

I am thankful to Dr. Priyam Goswami, Prof. and Head of the Deptt. of History, Gauhati University, Dr. Ranju Bezbarua, Proff. and former Head, Deptt. of History, Gauhati University along with all the teaching stuff of the History Departmet of Gauhati University for their constructive advice.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to the Librarians, viz., K. K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, I. C. H. R. (Indian Council of Historical Research) of Gauhati University, KAS (Kāmarūpa Anusandhāna Samiti), Guwahati, Directorate of Historical and Antiquarian Studies, Guwahati, D. K. Girls’ College Library, Mirza, J. N. College Library, Boko, Chhaygaon College Library, Chhaygaon etc.

My sincere thanks to the owner of Academy Printers, Jalukbari, Guwahati, Dr. Dharmeswar Chutia, the distinguished scholar and educationist and Sri Suchil Das, the computer operator who computerised this thesis with great sincerity and within a short period.

My thanks goes to Sri Gobinda Daloi and Sri Susil Patowary, the owners of Digital Studio, Boko for the photographs done to me.

Last but not least important to mention herewith that my wife Mrs. Shyabanti Mazumdar Adhikary who co-operated and insisted me with full support to complete this work from A to Z.

Date: 29.12.06
(Nara Kanta Adhikary)