ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Modern society depends on education for its continuity, development and progress of its physical and social life. Each nation has to develop and maintain standard of education, so that it’s rich educational heritage may be transmitted to the incoming generation. The future of education depends, therefore, directly upon the quality of intermediary inventive mind of the teacher and their ability to invent and innovate. Thus, instructional methods have a tremendous promise in changing the role of the class room teacher.

It is a great pleasure to express my profound and heart felt gratitude to my respected guide, Dr. Anil Kumar Upadhyaya, Lecturer, Baba Bhagwan Dass Government (PG) College, Chimanpura, Shahpura, Jaipur (Raj.) for his guidance and kind co-operation in the completion of this study. Without his keen interest, munificent help and highly inspiring suggestions, this study could not be accomplished in its present form.

I express my heartiest thanks to Ms. Santosh Jain, Principal, Basic Teachers’ Training College, G.V.M. Sardarshahr, Distt. Churu (Raj.) for their valuable cooperation and suggestions.

The researcher feels highly obliged to Dr. Sarita Sharma, Head of Research Department, Basic Teachers’ Training College, G.V.M, Sardarshahr, Distt.-Churu (Raj.) for his valuable guidance & co-operation.

I extend my sincere thanks to my ideal Madam Mrs. Prem Ola who have encouraged me in bringing out this thesis.
This acknowledgement would be meaningless if I do not remember my Parents, Shri Manphul Singh (Father) and Smt. Samajh Kaur (Mother) to whom I owe all the purposes that I have achieved so far, including the present work. In the course of research work there were times when I felt low in spirits, standing behind the rock hard, supporting me in every possible way. My sincere thanks are to my husband Mr. Rakesh Choudhary and Bhaiya, Bhabhi who helped me in the best possible way they could.

I wish to extend my thanks to the Principals and Teachers of related Senior Secondary School’s and to all who provided facilities in the pursuance of this research. The researcher sincerely owes to those Authors and Researchers whose publications and contributions have profoundly been utilized in this research.

Last but not the least, I thanks Almighty most sincerely who has best owed on me the strength and courage to embark on the subject successfully.

Place: Sardarshahr

Date: ..................

(Neelam Choudhary)