This work is dedicated to my twin brothers Francychayan and Varkychayan whose presence has always been about me, although I don’t have any memories about them as they left their earthly home in their infancy, before I was born.