ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis has been prepared under the guidance of Dr. Gadikota Vedaprayana, Professor, Department of Philosophy, S.V. University. But for his able guidance and inspiring discussions this thesis would neither have been conceived nor completed. I am grateful to him. Dr. Smt. Arnikar Hamsa gave me constant encouragement and advice throughout the study. I remain grateful to her.

The Department of Philosophy, S.V. University has been a fertile learning ground. My interactions with the faculty, visiting Professors and research scholars have contributed a great deal to my understanding of Buddhist Philosophy. Dr. B. Samasiva Prasad, Dr. P. Rama Krishna Chowdary, Dr. K. Chenchulakshmi, Chairperson, BOS, Dr. S. Abdul Sattar, Head, Dr. C. Umakantham, Dr. P. Chinnaiah, Dr. B.C. Obula Reddy, and Dr. M. Chandraiah have provided me invaluable insights into the Buddhist Philosophy. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude to all of them.

Sri Venkateswara University Library provided me access to relevant literature, besides enabling me access to INFLIBNET. The SVETA and the Sanskrit Vidyanapeet Libraries also provided access to the valuable resources. I would like to thank the librarians and their staff.

My late mother Smt. K. Adilakshamma's love and affection and my father Sri K. Jagan Mohan Pillai's support endured me throughout my study and research. Sri V. Rama Prasad, Junior Assistant, Department of Philosophy did an excellent job of the thesis with meticulous care. I appreciate his excellent work. I would like to thank all of my friends who were involved in the successful completion of my thesis work.

K. V. Ramana

(K.VENKATARAMANA)