Acknowledgements

This research work could not have been completed without the services, support, guidance and encouragement of few peoples; whom I feel glad to acknowledge here.

At the onset, I like to express my deep gratitude to the Supervisor of this research work, Professor Deb Prasad Sikdar, Department of Education, University of Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal, for his stimulating encouragement, right guidance, all round support, dedication, etc. I would not take up this difficult Ph.D. research work in Education, if Prof. Sikdar had not stimulated me to dare to venture for better tomorrow. So, I acknowledge his selfless dedicative appropriate services in completing this thesis.

I do acknowledge the support and positive encouragement of all the teachers of the Department of Education, University of Kalyani. Their encouragement and support were very much helpful in completing this research work.

My sincere thanks are due to the present and then Heads (at the time of my joining this Ph. D. Course) of the Department of Education, University of Kalyani for their administrative and other support.

Thanks are due to all the Office Staff and Library Staff of the Department of Education, University of Kalyani for their services and support throughout the course of this research work.

I also acknowledge the support, co-operation and services, directly or indirectly by the other Teacher Members, Officers, Office Staff of the University of Kalyani, which were needful for completing this research work.

In addition to all these, this thesis could not see the light of the day, if my elder brother Matiur Rahaman, bhabi Safika Banu (Sulekha), in spite of their difficulties, had not brought me up in the light of knowledge and nurtured me enough to cultivate in the field of knowledge. I acknowledge their far sighted dedication, from the bottom of my heart.

I also have to acknowledge the constant dedication, support and services rendered to me and to this research work by my wife Waresin Ara Begom Amin. She gladly shouldered the major responsibilities of our family and allowed me almost free to cultivate in the domain of knowledge and research, hence this thesis have been completed. I heartily acknowledge her services. Thanks are also due to my two minor wards, Afreen Ali and Md. Haadi Ali, as they allowed me to steal a part of parental time from them. I proudly acknowledge their sacrifices.
