My research is dedicated to Late Shri Dhirajlal Shah the Founder of Sanskar Sarjan Society which has a school and a college in the heart of the slum of Malad East in 1984, in order to make education easily available to them. Late Shri Dhirajlal Shah was a very rich and successful businessman who donated his land for the structure of a school and college. He wanted to reach out to the children of Malad east slum. His main aim was to make education reachable to more and more children of the slums of Malad east so that they are able to face challenges of life with a positive attitude. He wanted to give the socially disadvantaged an opportunity for learning, without discrimination of caste, creed and community and make them responsible citizens of the community. He also aimed at making them human beings spreading peace, harmony and happiness around so that their atmosphere improves. He also wanted to inculcate values like honesty, integrity and fairness in the people of Malad east through their educated children and bring a change in their life, which is a social responsibility.

Late Shri Dhirajlal was a man of simple living and high thinking who believed in to be good and be good is the best religion. According to him children are like cement whatever falls on them makes an impression and if education falls on them it would have a beautiful impact.

To think is easy, to act is tough. To act as you think is the most challenging which Late Shri Dhirajlal the founder of our college not only addressed like the many rich but also put it into practice. May the good Lord Bless him in Heaven Amen.
