RESEARCH HYPOTHESIS

To provide answers to research questions, following hypothesis are considered in this study:-

H0- It explains Organisational climates such as groupism, working conditions, gossiping, work environment doesn’t effect the performance of the employees. It means these factors has no significant relationship on organisational climate and performance of the employees.

H1:- It signifies that there is a positive relationship between organisational climate and performance of the employees and vice versa. Factors such as mutual trust, coordination, cooperation positively effects the organisational climate and performance of employees and vice versa.