ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The chain between intention and action is invariably long and complex. It needs to be welded together with multifarious efforts and multi-sourced help. The idea of doing Doctoral research had stayed with me, even after my selection in Civil Services in 1996. It ultimately led me to the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, to attain my goal.

I would first like to thank Dr. S. C. Panigrahi (Department of Education), who spared his valuable time in explaining the requirements for a Ph.D. degree. He also introduced me to Professor H. C. Shukul, Department of Political Science, who in turn led me to Professor Anand P. Mavalankar. I thank Prof Shukul for his unbiased suggestions that helped me formulate my research topic. He continued to motivate in later interactions. It only speaks volumes for his spirit of justice and graciousness that he guided me to Prof. Mavalankar, the research topic being related more to his area of expertise.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to my Ph.D. guide-Professor Anand P. Mavalankar. In this journey, his knowledge, vision and positive approach mitigated all obstacles. Throughout the entire research period, he remained accessible to me whenever I needed his guidance. His suggestions have proved immensely beneficial. He was a patient listener as well, and was always willing to help and encourage.

I also wish to thank other members of the Department and of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library, in the university. Other libraries and institutions also provided rich sources to me, notably, the Indian Institute of Management-Ahemdabad, the Ahmedabad Management Association, and the British Library in Ahmedabad.
My interactions with experts in this field were indeed invaluable. I thank Shri Arun Goyal, (Director, Academy of Business Studies, New Delhi), Prof Bibek Debroy (Director, RGI, New Delhi), Dr. Biswajit Dhar (Head, WTO, Centre, IIFT, New Delhi), Shri B K. Zutshi (Former Ambassador to GATT), Dr. Manoj Pant (Professor, J.N.U., New Delhi), Dr Nagesh Kumar (DG, Research and Information System, New Delhi), and Shri Parth Shah (Director, CCI, New Delhi) for sparing their time to discuss pertinent issues with the researcher.

I would also like to thank Kumar Mudaliyar, Dilip Sonksure, B. H. Rohadia, Anand Kumar and Sheetal Parmar for their immense help in downloading loads of research material Shri T. M. Durairajjan deserves a special thanks for his sincerity and patience in the typing work.

Above all, I would like to thank my inspiring circle of family-members and friends that enveloped me at all times. I would like to specially thank my sister Chitra and my children Devika and Karan for their presence in my life. I also thank my friends- K K. Sharma (Fellow, IIM-A), P N Pandey (Joint Commissioner, Customs), Utkarsh Tiwari (Dy. Commissioner, Customs) and Samrita Gill for their continuous support. Special thanks to 'The Rock of Gibraltar' for many innovative ideas and more so, for weathering many storms.

"For I dipt into the future, far as Human eye can see,
Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be,
Far along the World-wide whisper of the South-wind rushing warm,
With the standards of the peoples plunging Thro' the thunderstorm,
Till the War-drum throbb'd no longer
And the battle-flags were furl'd
In the Parliament of man, the Federation of the world"

Alfred Tennyson,
in 'Locksley Hall'
