SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY AND SOURCES

Primary Sources

Correspondence of Bharatiya Kisan Sangh (BKS) with Gujarat Electricity Board (GEB) and Gujarat State Government.

Correspondence of GEB with Government and Bharatiya Kisan Sangh.

Submissions of BKS and GEB in Gujarat Electricity Regulatory Commission.

Interview and focused group discussion with various BKS leaders, senior officials and decision-makers of GEB and Gujarat government including political leaders.

Indian Express, Times of India, Gujarat Samachar and Sandesh – relevant articles of various years.

Government Sources

Several published and unpublished reports and yearbooks of Gujarat Government (Finance, Agriculture, Planning and Irrigation Departments) and GEB

Government Of Gujarat. Districtwise Area, production and Yield per hectare of Crops in Gujarat, various years.

Gujarat Electricity Board. Annual Accounts of various years.

Secondary Sources
Books and Articles

Anderson, Kym and Yujiro Hayami, 1986. The Political Economy of Agricultural Protection: East Asia in International Perspective, Sydney, Allen and Unwin,

Chambers, Robert 1994. Irrigation against Rural Poverty. In Socio-Economic Dimensions and Irrigation, eds. R. K. Gurjar, Jaipur, Printwell

Indian Express, June 23, 2004, ‘Mellow ’ Modi tries to pacify Sangh farmers

Moench, Marcus. 1994. Approaches to groundwater management: to Enable or to Control, Economic and Political Weekly, 33 (26).

Sant G and S. Dixit. 1996. Beneficiaries of IPS subsidy. Economic and Political Weekly. XXXI (December 21)

Smith, Richard A. 1995. Interest Group Influence in the US Congress. Legislative Studies Quarterly. 20:

Tiwari, Diptiman. 2005. Growing Controversy over Seed Patents in India, in www.organicconsumers.org/patent/india.050905.cfm

196

