ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take immense pleasure in thanking my guide Dr. R.P. Nachane and my co-guide Dr. B. A. Patwardhan for their valuable guidance and help throughout the study. Their guidance has been highly instrumental throughout my research.

I would like to thank Dr. Shoba Udipi, Director, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Home Science, S.N.D.T. Women’s University to permit me to conduct my study.

I would also like to thank Dr. S. Sreenivasan, Director, Central Institute for Research on Cotton Technology (CIRCOT), for allowing me to conduct my testing at the Institute.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Ashok. K. Majumdar, NIRJAFT, Kolkata and Mr. R. A. Sagar, K.V.I.C., Mumbai and Mr. Dhanapalan, K.V.I.C, Trivandrum, Kerala for all the guidance, support offered during my PhD work.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Mr. Mhadgut, In-charge Yarn and Fabric Testing Department and Mr. P.V. Vardharajan, Head Chemistry Department, CIRCOT Mumbai for permitting me to conduct testing in their departments.

I would like to specially thank Mr. B. Pawar (Technical Officer), Yarn Testing Department, Mr. G. Hadge (Microscopy), Dr. Nagarkar, (Technical Officer), Mr. Chaggani (Technical Officer), Mr. Rajesh (Technical Officer), Chemistry section, Dr. Matishchandra, (Technical Officer), Fibre Physics Department, for their valuable guidance and help during the experimentations.

I would also like to thank the staff of the Fibre Physics, Yarn and Fabric Testing, Fibre Testing, Chemistry and Library departments of CIRCOT for their support during the study.

I am thankful to the library staff of CIRCOT (Matunga), S.N.D.T. Women’s University, Mumbai and M.U.I.C.T, Matunga, Mumbai for making all the reading materials available for my reference.

It would like to greatly acknowledge the help given by Mama (Weaver), Department of Textile Science and Apparel Design, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Home Science, S.N.D.T. Women’s University for weaving the fabric for the study.

I would also like to thank Mr. Raj. Vargheese Marketing, Technical Promotion and Mr. P. Nabar, Mr Nagvekar Assistant Manager Finishing Lab, Clariant Chemical (India) Ltd. for helping me in conducting the finishing treatments.

Help provided by Dr. Nadiger and Dr. Muraleedhara, Textile Committee is greatly acknowledged.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratification to all my family members for their unfailing help and constant encouragement.

Most humbly, I wish to thank my parents for their incessant love, infinite blessing, ceaseless inspirations and reinforcement at every step of my life. My study would have been incomplete without the moral support of my mother-in-law, father-in-law, and my sister for keeping my spirits up and for their unflinching support.

My husband, my most exacting critic, my closest friend, without him this manuscript wouldn’t have been this thesis. I owe a great bit to him.

I would like very especially thank my little one, Siddhant, for being mine.

I would like to thank all those who have helped and supported me throughout my study in every little way, without which the accomplishment of my study would not have been possible.

If there are any omissions or misspellings on this list, I beg forgiveness.

And finally but immensely, ‘God’, who continues to look after me despite my flaws.

Vandana Balan.
