ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I am profoundly indebted to Prof. M. Indira, my research guide, for her valuable guidance and inspiring encouragement for the completion of this thesis. The investigation reached its present shape only because of her erudition of my area of work which helped me develop a more critical and informed perspective throughout the research process.

My sincere thanks are due to all the teachers of the Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation and other scholars for their valuable suggestions from time to time in the Department on various aspects of the present research work. All the faculty as well as staff of the Department have been of tremendous help to me in one or the other way. I am grateful to Mr Prasad, Research Scholar in Economics who helped me in the research work.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Lalith Achoth, Professor Department of Dairy Economics and Business Management, Hebbal campus, Bangalore for his scholarly suggestions and help in the analysis of data.

I am thankful to all senior research scholars, fellow research scholars, juniors, friends and colleagues for their help and co-operation during the course of my research work.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude and indebtedness towards my beloved wife Elaheh Motamedi who encouraged and supported me during this course of my research. I thankful to my son Ershad Darvishi, who helped me during my research work.

Finally, I express my deep sense of gratitude and thankfulness to all those who helped me directly and indirectly during the course of my research work.
