Acknowledgement

If words are considered symbols of approval and token of acknowledgment, then let the words play the heralding role of expressing my gratitude.

First of all I am grateful to the Almighty for showering his abundant blessings upon me to complete this thesis on time.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my guide, Dr. (Mrs.) S.Chandralekha, M.A.,M.Phil.,B.Ed.,Ph.D., Principal, Sree Ayyappa College for Women, Chunkankadai, who ignited the light of knowledge, provided me all the necessary facilities and guided me right from the beginning till the last word on my thesis. She cared me as a mother, taught me as a teacher, advised me as an elder and helped me as a friend. Inspite of her academic and administrative duties, she dedicated her valuable time for me and I am extremely grateful and indebted to her for her expert, valuable guidance and encouragement. Without her support and supervision, this dissertation would not have been possible. I thank her from the bottom of my heart.

I would also like to express my special appreciation and thanks to Dr.(Mrs.) C.Anna Latha Devi, M.A.,A.M.A.,M.Phil.,Ph.D., Professor and Head of the Pre-Doctoral Department of English, Sree Ayyappa College for Women, Chunkankadai, for her valuable guidance and blessings.
Words cannot express how grateful I am to Dr. B. Krishna Prasad, Principal (Rtd) NVKSD College of Education, Attoor, who with his affectionate compulsion introduced me into this Ph.D programme. Without his insight and genuine concern this academic enterprise would have been impossible.

Grateful acknowledgement is due to all my family members. My father Mr. J.K. Kumar introduced me to the world of letters and dreamt of my attaining a doctoral degree. His constant source of moral support and encouragement helped me at every stage of my research. My mother Mrs. Lathika genuinely prayed and supported me during the ordeal of my research. I am equally indebted to my husband Mr. S. Sudhir for all his understanding and sincere consideration during the past two years. Without his cooperation and encouragement it could not have been possible to complete my thesis.

Above all, I thank all my teachers who supported me in writing and motivated me to strive towards accomplishing my goal.

I also acknowledge the sincere help rendered by Mrs. Vanitha in the preparation of the thesis.
