ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have undertaken the work for my Ph.D. Degree as a Research Scholar in the Department of Philosophy, University of Mysore, during March, 2011 to December, 2013. This thesis, of course, would not have been completed without generous and kindly help from many individuals. This acknowledgement is made here to express my appreciation and gratitude to them.

It gives me great pleasure to take this opportunity to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my teacher and supervisor, Dr. S. Venkatesh, Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri Mysore 570 006, whose kind self and sublime states of mind made my study very fruitful. His scholarly supervision, patient reminders, valuable suggestions and necessary corrections helped me to complete the work in time. I am deeply indebted to him.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to Dr. V. N. Sheshagiri Rao, Retired Professor and Former Chairman of the Department of Philosophy, for kindly accepting me as a Research Scholar in the esteemed institution. Moreover, his critical and valuable suggestions regarding the present work have been given with kindness and compassion. With a profound sense of respect I am extremely grateful and thankful to him.

I express my sincere gratitude and special thanks to all the scholars, whose works enabled me to give shape to this thesis. My sincere thanks are due to the University of Mysore, the Library and especially the chairman and all the staff in the Department of Philosophy who have in various ways helped me in the research. I offer my grateful thanks to them.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Phramaha Narin Sudhamma, Dr. Phra Wisit Wongsai, Dr. Uten Larping, Dr. Prasit Chara, Dr. Somkhit Yakhen, Dr. Phramaha Danaiphat Yuniram and all students in Thai student association, Mysore, for their help in so many ways during my study-time at the University of Mysore.

I also take this opportunity of making full acknowledgement of my deepest gratitude and obligation to Assistant Professor Charoon Rattanakal, Head of the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies, Acharaya Dhatree Mahantarat, Head of the Department of Law, and all lecturers who are my friends at Phranakhon Si Ayutthaya Rajabhat University, Thailand. Their suggestions and encouragement have sustained me throughout.

Finally, I would like to express my special thanks to Phra Phim Dhammadinno (father), Khunmae Nuchan Phanchan (mother), Boonthan Phanchan (younger brother), Phatcharee Phanchan (younger sister in law), close relatives, teachers, and specially Phor Tin On-suang, who is like my teacher and father, left this world before he could see my achievements in educational field, for their encouragement love, best wishes, and financial assistance.
