Personal debts can never be adequately acknowledged. One of my best friends has given me support in more ways than I can list here.

Completion of this work required lot of solitude which means missing many hours from family members. The seemingly endless patience of my family members for countless hours spent away from them during the research work is highly appreciated.

The final product you see before you is the collective effort of many people. I wish to thank the thorough and every helpful input of Mr. Parvaiz and Mr. Waseem (Virus Digital Internet Cafe) for gorgeous confocal photographs that grace the pages of this thesis.
