ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present doctoral thesis entitled “SIVA TEMPLES IN TIRUCHENDUR TALUK – A HISTORICAL STUDY” makes an attempt to analyse and discuss the History of Siva Temples in Tiruchendur taluk is situated within forty kilometers South of Thoothukudi city and fifty two kilometer east of Tirunelveli, Tiruchendur taluk remains the microcosm of Indian culture and example for unity in diversity. Here an attempt is made to study the land and people of Tirunchendur taluk, structure of Siva Temples. Art and Architecture, Pujas and Festivals, Administration of temples and role of the Temples in the society based on original archival repository of Tamil Nadu.

In this venture I received encouraging support and valuable assistance from different quarters.

First of all I offer my prayers and thanks to “The almighty for bestowing his blessings upon me for the completion of this work.

I record my sincere thanks to my guide Dr. N. Jeyakumar, Associate Professor and Head, Post Graduate and Research Centre of History, V.O.Chidambaram College, Thoothukudi – 8, for his inspiring guidance and constructive suggestions for the successful completion of the thesis.

I am highly indebted to Dr. S. Murugavel, Associate Professor, P.G. Department History, RaniAnna Government College for Women, Tirunelveli – 8 for his valuable and vice, deep thought provoking ideas, meaningful suggestions enabled me to complete this research work in time.

I express my sincere thanks to the commissioner Hindu Religious Endowment Department, Chennai-34 and Executive Officers and office staffs of Somanathar, Kailasanathar Temples Attur, Kailasanathar Temple, ThenThirupperai Narasinganathartemple Angamangalam, Chidambareswarar temple, Kulasekharapattinam and Srimaikandeeswar temple, Kayalpattinam, my hearty thanks are also due to the staff of the Archaeology department, Chennai.

I take this opportunity acknowledge the help that I received from libraries and record officers at the time of source collection.

I am grateful to the commissioner of Tamil Nadu Archives and Historical research for having given me permission to refer the records in pertaining my topic. I express my sincere thanks to the librarians of University of Madras, Chennai, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, MaduraiKamarajUniversity T.P.M. Library, Madurai Cannemara Public Library, District Library, Tirunelveli and also the librarians of V.O.Chidambaram College and Govinthammal College Library, Tiruchendur.

I also extend my special thanks to Mr. Mohamed Hussain for his Cooperation and Promptness in Printing my thesis.

Finally I extend my sincere thanks to Mr. K. Kanthasubbu, Mr. M. Joseph Raj and Dr. J. Albert Prince Kumar, Principal, St. Joseph College of Education, Kalakad for their help in making this study a success.

K. SAMUEL THANGARAJ KORES