ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my immense feeling of respect and gratitude towards my learned guide Dr D S Mishra (Professor, Dept of English, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar), for without his guidance and inspiration I would never have completed this study.

I would always cherish one specific moment of discussion in which he hoped India would lead the movement of 'fraternity' as did the West for the remaining twin of the noble trinity.

I must make mention of my friends Dr Baldev Agja and Prof P M Parmar for encouraging me for the candidacy to this doctoral study as well as making my stay in Vallabh Vidyanagar comfortable and lively.

I have to also thank my wife Jasumati, my differently able 37-year old childlike son Jyotir, my daughter Roocha, my son Swaman for giving me support in pursuing the study.
