ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the help and support of the kind people around me, to only some of whom it is possible to give particular mention here.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my Guide Professor Dr. Asna Urooj, I am grateful to you for enlightening me the first glance of research. You have been a tremendous mentor and a role model. I would like to thank you from bottom of my heart for the kind support, patience and for encouraging my research and for allowing me to grow as a research scientist. Your advice on both research as well as on my career have been invaluable. The difference you have made in my research work, thesis and in inspiring me with your great deeds is nothing sort of legendary in this field.

A special thanks to my family. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my husband Mr. Vishnu Vardhan Reddy S, for supporting me in my endeavor; I can’t thank you enough for encouraging me throughout this experience. I thank my parents, In-laws, siblings and nieces for all of the sacrifices that you’ve made on my behalf. Your prayer for me was what sustained me thus far. A special thanks for my beloved children Master Vivek V Reddy and Master Krishna Sai for being such sweet hearts and for always cheering me up at times of my emotional blues.

I thank all of the former Chairpersons, Prof. Shashikala Puttaraj, Prof. Khyrunnisa Begum and Prof. Jamuna Prakash. Also I thank Asst. Professor Dr. Komala, DOS in Human Development. I thank Mr. Umapathi and other non-teaching staff of the Department of Food Science and Nutrition for their support since the start of my previous postgraduate work in 2000 -2002.

I express my deep gratitude to the Director, Central Sericultural Research and Training Institute (CSRTI) Mysore and the Chairman of Department of Sericulture, University of Mysore, Mysore for permitting me to collect the plant material required for the research work.
I would like to acknowledge the financial, academic and technical support provided by Institute of Excellence (IOE), University of Mysore.

I would like to extend my Gratitude to Dr. Yajurvedi, Professor, DOS in Zoology, University of Mysore, Incharge – Central Animal House, UOM and assistants of Central Animal House of UOM, for providing the animals in a required time period.

I thank Dr. Srinivas M Associate Professor, Department of Pathology, Mysore Medical College, Mysore and Dr. Shubha Jayaram, Associate Professor, Department of Biochemistry, Mysore Medical College and Research Institute, Mysore in carrying histopathology of the organs.

I thank my fellow lab mates Ms. Sudha Sairam, Mr. Naveen Y. P., Ms. Namratha Pai, Ms. Sheetal Shenoy and Mr. Lohith for the stimulating discussions, for the sleepless nights we were working together before deadlines, and for all the fun we have had in the last four years. my friends and colleagues Dr. Vishalakshi Devi, Dr. Faiyaz Ahmed, Dr. Ramya Bhaskar, Dr. Taraneh Esteki, Dr. Florence Suma and Dr. Linda Grace Roy, for their support during my work. I express deep sense of gratitude to Ms. Divya Rupini G, Guest Faculty, DOS in Foods Science and Nutrition for helping me during the Thesis completion.

Above all I thank my God, my good Father, for letting me through all the difficulties. I have experienced your guidance day by day and I am deeply indebted to you for your unequivocal support throughout, as always, for which my mere expression of thanks likewise does not suffice.

Vanitha Reddy P.
