ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise, thanks and glory go to the Almighty Allah, the one above all of us, the omnipresent God, for His bounteous mercy and kindness, for answering my prayers, and for giving me the strength, patience, and hope. Without His kindness and mercy, I would not have been able to complete this endeavor.

First, I offer my sincerest gratitude to my research supervisor, Dr Shaikh Samad, Principal, Vasantrao Naik College, Aurangabad for his excellent guidance, caring, patience, and providing me with an excellent atmosphere for doing research. Without him, this thesis would not have been completed or written. His advice and unfailing support have been invaluable on both an academic and a personal level, for which I am extremely grateful. Above all and the most needed, he provided me unflinching encouragement in various ways. His truly literary intuition has made him constant oases of ideas in literature, which exceptionally inspired and enriched my growth as a student, a researcher want to be. I am indebted to him more than he knows.
