ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness to my honourable teacher and research guide Dr. Lakshyahira Datta, Professor, Department of Geography, Gauhati University, Guwahati, Assam, and Dr. Jnanashree Borah, Associate Professor, Dept. of Geography, Arya Vidyapeeth College, Guwahati for their valuable suggestions and guidances, which pave the way towards completion of this research work.

I am also indebted to the Head, Department of Geography, Gauhati University for providing necessary Departmental Laboratory and Library facilities during the course of my study.

I am thankful to the University Grants Commission for awarding me the UGC Teachers’ Fellowship under the UGC Faculty Improvement Programme and the authority of Pub Kamrup College where I have been working as an Associate Professor in Geography Department for granting me study leave and availing the fellowship.

I sincerely acknowledge the help rendered by the Office of the Mission Director, Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan, Guwahati, Assam for giving me the permission to use their library and to collect necessary data and information from four District Co-ordinator Offices, namely Sonitpur, Barpeta, Kokrajhar and Morigaon districts.

I duly acknowledge the help of Survey of India, Shillong, for their help in providing me the necessary topographical maps. I also convey my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Manuj Gohain, Mr. Kishore Kumar Bharali, and Miss Sakhi Bujarbaruah, for their assistance and encouragement during my research period.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my family members and my colleagues for their constant help and inspirations from every aspect during the research work.

Last but not the least, I extend my thanks to those who have generously shared with me the information and ideas that are invaluable in the preparation of this thesis. I gratefully acknowledge them all.

Date: 19/07/2013

(Harekrishna Haloi)